Crown's Procedure In Libel Case Claimed Correct

That the Edmonton Journal imputed "without any justification whatsoever" improper conduct by the Crown in the recent libel cases is charged in a statement issued today by the Alberta Attorney-General's department.

The statement issued by H. J. Wilson, deputy attorney-general, has reference to an editorial published in the Journal Tuesday.

The paragraph complained of by provincial law authorities reads: "In future it is to be hoped the law officers of the Crown in Alberta will refrain from attempting to do indirectly what, under the law, may not be done directly. That we understand is a fundamental principle of law that is drilled into students in law school, and practicing barristers are not supposed to forget it."

In reply Mr. Wilson states: "The fair inference from this statement is that the law officers of the Crown acted improperly in advising the laying of the charges of conspiracy to commit a defamatory libel and were doing something that a student at law would know was improper."

Mr. Wilson then points out that the charges of conspiracy and counselling were attacked by counsel for the Crown and that the Supreme court of Ontario but all charges were upheld by Mr. Justice McRobb who held the Alberta courts to hear the cases, the statement asserts.

"It will thus seem," states Mr. Wilson, "that the law officers of the Crown were doing what was permitted by the provisions of the Criminal Code, and whatever views there may be as to these provisions, or whether they should be amended, are the concern of the law officers of the Crown but is the sole concern of the parliament of Canada."

"The counsel engaged to advise the case and the law officers of the Crown are officers of high repute and long standing in the legal profession and have had many years of experience in prosecuting criminal cases."

"Law officers must proceed in accordance with the law as it is and as it might be amended by future amendments to the Criminal Code of Canada," the statement concludes.

Road Conditions Hold Up Forage Transport

Grave difficulties already facing department of agriculture officials trying to get feed to starving cattle were increased by an announcement of a general road closure.

The ban prohibits the use of main and secondary highways in the province by vehicles of more than 1,000 pounds, including the load, effective at 7 a.m. Thursday.

The cattle feed situation in Alberta is "getting worse all the time," A. M. Wilson, feed crops commissioner reported today.

Some ray of hope had been furnished Tuesday with reports of some supplies of hay and straw becoming available, but snow conditions on roads and over the feed stacks are adding to the difficulties of shipping feed.

Reports from Drumheller and other points Tuesday indicated that the feed-short area was extending into new sections of the province.

Mr. Wilson said an example of the difficulties being faced in getting feed from the stricken area was the truck which was stuck at Fort Saskatchewan where the snow plow was stuck in a drift and trucks were marooned a mile and a half from supplies to be fed.

The Camrose district had been possible to clear roads, but stacks in the fields were buried so deep in snow it was nearly impossible to get the feed out for feeding.

Builders are being used in all districts where available, but Mr. Wilson suggested any trucks going to pick up feed at stacks should also carry a crew of men equipped with snow shovels.

He revealed that some farmers are bringing stock into market in an unheated state 75 to 100 feet below zero.

It is better to salvage what is left from the stock than to let the animals starve.

Not enough barrels are available at Lesser Slave Lake to handle the many carloads of stock feed available there.

Announcement of a ban on Motorville roads prevented another difficulty the department was facing, Mr. Wilson said.

JAY WALKER LEARNS SAFETY THE HARD WAY

Yee Foo Wah, City Rooms, won't do any more "jaywalking"—at least for sometime.

Tuesday afternoon he allegedly attempted to beat a street car across the street near the intersection of 104 avenue and 97 street and stepped into the path of a car driven by Alex D. Hamilton, 11161 96 street.

Newcomer Says Edmonton Is Place of Opportunity

Canada, and especially Edmonton, is the place of opportunity Britons read and hear about, according to a British immigrant now living in the city.

He is Derrick Midwinter, 10891 74 street, who arrived in Edmonton last fall with his wife and two children, Diana, five, and Clive, three.

Today the Midwinter family was joined by two other Britons anxious to learn the Canadian way of living.

They are the mother and sister of Mrs. Midwinter, Mrs. Edna C. Browne and Miss Beryl Browne. He is at present employed as a stenographer.

Has Seen World
Mr. Midwinter spent 16 years with the Royal Air Force before being discharged following the war and has travelled to almost all parts of the world.

But he is not regretting his decision to settle in Edmonton and is looking forward to a life under the best of living conditions.

He is at present employed as a book agent, but has greater ambitions.

Lawyer Advised Move
Mr. Midwinter brought his family to Edmonton on the advice of a former Alberta lawyer, who is now practicing in England.

The lawyer is G. G. Hollick, who has offices in Lethbridge, Calgary and Edmonton before returning to England several years ago.

During his 16 years in the RAF, Midwinter served mostly at Hong Kong and Singapore.

He was in France when war broke out and during the latter years of the war he was attached to the Royal Navy as an officer.

He retired from the RAF with the rank of flying officer.

One experience that will always be remembered by Midwinter was the explosion of a mine in Malia in 1943.

Twenty-five naval men and air force personnel were working in the store at the time and 38 of them were killed, the former flying officer said.

This is the new Edmonton's second experience as an immigrant when he was only 15 years old he migrated to Australia, but after five years of farm work was anxious to return to England.

Pioneer Woman Dies In City

Mrs. Gertrude N. Hattwick, resident of Edmonton since 1907, died of a heart ailment Tuesday.

She was the wife of Charles T. Hattwick, who was active in social and community work. Her husband was active in social and community work.

She was also a member of the Eastern Star Lodge. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Odom of Alameda, California, and one son, Charles Hattwick, Edmonton.

The party will leave for Ottawa Saturday night.

4,800 New' Phones Promised in City

About 5,000 Subscribers Now Awaiting Service

Approximately 4,800 lines of central office equipment will be installed by the city telephone system during 1948.

This will provide that number of telephone services for approximately 5,000 potential subscribers now listed with the department.

During the past two months 1,100 lines of central equipment have been installed in the north east and south exchanges, and 1,097 subscribers have been added to the system.

Total telephones in service at March 31, 1948, was 27,738.

During the past two months approximately seven miles of underground duct system has been laid.

The system has also added nine miles of underground cable and nine miles of cable have been ordered for 1949 construction.

During the shortage of telephone equipment, Robert Christie, superintendent of the telephone system, said today there were 125,000 subscribers throughout the Dominion waiting for telephone service, 5,000 of them in Edmonton.

HUGE WAITING LIST
On the North American continent, the waiting list stands at 2,500,000, it was learned.

During the war period telephone companies were unable to obtain equipment.

Due to the shortage of raw materials since the end of the war and the great demand for services, manufacturers are unable to meet demands for equipment made by operating companies.

Mr. Christie stated that equipment required for the new telephone building scheduled for delivery last November is only now being delivered.

Two Teachers
Are Appointed
Appointments of two teachers and several others to staffs of the Edmonton Public schools were made at Tuesday night's meeting of the school board.

Miss Veronica Davies, at present on exchange in England, was appointed to the staff of Victoria high school. She is attached to the staff of McLaughlin high school.

Miss Davies will replace R. H. Dobson, who will retire from the school staff in June.

Other appointments made were that of Miss Marjorie Holtzman to the new economics staff.

Leave of absence was granted to Joan M. McAllister and Edith Kern.

3 Principles Are Proposed To Keep Peace

WASHINGTON, April 14.—(AP)—Henry L. Stimson, United States secretary of state, today announced three principles are necessary for world peace.

1. Anglo-American friendship.
2. An economic basis for peace, with no international debt burden or trade barriers.
3. Universal military training for Americans.

Excerpts from the book have been published in the Ladies Home Journal.

The book carries through Stimson's early political battles in New York state as a young Republican, to his three terms in the cabinet, as war secretary under President Taft, as state secretary under Hoover, and again as war secretary under Franklin D. Roosevelt.

AGAINST HIGH TARIFFS

He differed most with his own political party over high tariffs and writes that Republican "insistence on a high tariff in the 1930s campaign" "so disgusted him that he took no active part in the campaign."

In the five years before the Second World War he says he felt "mounting apprehension" over "Anglo-French folly" and later "the betrayal of Ethiopia, the absurd 'non-intervention' in Spain and the final moral abdication at Munich."

He was also at odds with his own country's foreign policy. He believed the United States should be a peace-loving nation, and he advocated a trade embargo against Japan.

Throughout the last 15 years of world history his greatest regrets appear to centre around the spreading loss of civil liberties by people of various countries, whether under Nazis or Communists.

Sandwell Denies Group Contains Any Known Reds

TORONTO, April 14.—(CP)—B. K. Sandwell, editor of Toronto Star Sunday Night, and a member of the Committee of Bill of Rights, denied Tuesday the group contained any known Communists.

Commenting on statements in the house of commons by Rev. E. G. Hansell (SC, Montreal) that many Canadians are duped into supporting organizations that are "fronts" for Communist workers, Sandwell said the committee did not seek or welcome such persons.

Sandwell said no connection existed between the committee and the Civil Rights Union of Toronto, recently attacked by Hansell in the house as being infiltrated with Communists.

Advertising Head Northern Electric Company Is Dead

MONTREAL, April 14.—(CP)—Donald Ernest Bankhart, 55, general advertising manager of Northern Electric Company, collapsed and died today the company officials said.

A native of Stock, Essex, England, he came to Canada at the age of 14, settling at Dauphin, Man. He was at one time operator and manager of the Commercial Broadcasting station owned by the Winnipeg Tribune and was radio editor of the Tribune.

He joined Northern Electric in Winnipeg in 1922 and in 1927 entered the firm's advertising department.

Many U.S. Miners Can Get Pensions

WASHINGTON, April 14.—(AP)—The soft-coal industry estimated Tuesday that 10,000 to 20,000 miners could qualify for $100-a-month pensions in the first year of operation of their pension fund.

The industry figures the first year's cost at $12,000,000 to $21,000,000.

Births, Marriages Show Decrease

OTTAWA, April 14.—(CP)—Births and marriages decreased and deaths increased in February compared with February 1947. The Bureau of Statistics reported Tuesday.

Births registered in centres of 10,000 or more population decreased eight per cent from 14,200 to 13,100; deaths rose 32 per cent from 4,500 to 5,940; and marriages dropped 18 per cent from 3,700 to 3,040.

Immigrants Show Sharp Increase

OTTAWA, April 14.—(CP)—Canada admitted 12,422 immigrants during January and February, compared with 3,537 during the same months of 1947.

The immigration branch said the great boost was in the number of persons from continental Europe.

Officials said the steamship Kato is scheduled to arrive at Halifax early next week with 740 Polish immigrants.

Freight Rate Boost Closing Industries

SAINT JOHN, N.S., April 14.—(CP)—Mayor James D. McKenna told city council he knew of several lost industrial firms in Nova Scotia which are going to close down because of the freight rate increase granted Canadian railways. He did not elaborate.

QUAKE GIVES VILLAGE WATER

SHANGHAI, April 14.—(AP)—A severe earthquake brought clear, cold water to a desert village which had been hauling its water 20 miles.

The recent quake destroyed five fine buildings—but opened 12 deep fissures from which the water flows.

The village is Shaybark in the remote Hsien district of Sinkiang province.

Publishers at Annual Canadian Press Meet

TORONTO, April 14.—(CP)—Unremitting attention to the quality and adequacy of the nation's news coverage was urged on Canadian newspapers today by F. I. Ker, president of the Canadian Press, at CP's annual meeting.

After reviewing CP's history since its founding in 1917, Mr. Ker, publisher of the Hamilton Spectator, told the attending publishers and editors of the financial condition of the organization and of plans for its new head-office building in Toronto, to be completed in August.

PICTURE SERVICE

Gillis Purcell, general manager, presented a plan for a new picture service in which the co-operative principle, applied successfully to news for 31 years, would be used. If approved, the plan would be put into effect Sept. 1.

Mr. Purcell said emphasis in the last year was on simplicity and clarity in writing, more studied situational stories and better sport and financial copy. The record showed considerable progress.

Five transfers of membership were reported to the meeting. They were: Halifax Chronicle, from A. G. Sampson to S. Leonard Tiller; Ottawa Le Droit, from H. E. Le Meunier to J. A. Gratton; Kirkland Lake Northern News, from George B. Jackson to Kenneth B. Thomson; Edmonton Bulletin, from G. E. Campbell to H. L. Straight; Vancouver Province, from O. Leigh Spencer to P. C. Galbraith.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, Wednesday, April 14, 1948 5

Party Leaders Honor Newsman

TORONTO, April 14.—(CP)—The leaders of all four parties in the Ontario legislature Tuesday extended congratulations to Hosi Parry, press gallery correspondent for the Toronto Globe and Mail, who is in line for a medal from the United States government.

The award, now being considered by the U.S. Senate, is in recognition of the services of 16 reporters who witnessed Germany's Second World War surrender at Reims in France, May 7, 1945.

Parry, formerly of Vancouver, was there as a sergeant with the Canadian Army publication, the Maple Leaf.

Premier Drew left off by declaring that the men of the press are performing one of the essential services of our democratic system."

spades and overtook the eight of spades with dummy's jack.

At this point most declarers led the queen of hearts from dummy. King covered with the king and South won. But now he had to lose two heart tricks.

There was nothing to be gained by the play of the queen of hearts. Declarer should have cashed the ace, king and queen of spades and then the ace of hearts. I do not say that this play should be made because it drops the singleton king, but because there is nothing to be gained by leading the queen. If East had the king and one declarer would have to lose a heart trick in the ten-spot in West's hand.

Hear in mind that when you have four in the queen's trick opposite four to the ace, the ace should be cashed. You lose nothing if the king does not drop.

Snowslide Delays

Eastbound Trains

CALGARY, April 14.—(UPI)—Passenger trains arriving in Calgary yesterday were delayed by a snowslide on the mainline near Field, B.C. earlier yesterday. The slide covered more than 200 feet of mainline track to a depth of 30 feet. No. 2 train was about 11 hours late on arrival here about 12:30 a.m. and other passenger trains were held up for more than five hours.

Postpone West Boxing Finals For One Week

VANCOUVER, April 14.—(CP)—

The Western Canada amateur boxing championships—to choose the best representatives for the Olympic trials—have been postponed for one week. Harry Porter, British Columbia executive of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, announced Tuesday night.

Postponement—from April 30 to May 7—was necessitated by earlier commitments of the Vancouver Forum, where the boxing is to be held.

"The postponement will be better for a few Alberta fighters," Ted McNeill, president of the Alberta branch of the Amateur Athletic Union, stated in Edmonton Tuesday night.

McNeill was advised of the setback by wire and he promptly advised the ringers concerned.

ALBERTA SQUAD CUT

The Alberta boxing contingent, previously set at seven fighters, has been cut to six, he added. Ralph Shuby, a heavyweight from Edmonton, is unable to make the jump.

For Laurie Maclean, welterweight attending the University of Alberta, the postponement is a "god send." Maclean, who is in the thick of exams, advised he would have been unable to attend the journey at the end of the month, but will now be able to go.

Hugh MacDonald, popular Edmonton middleweight, is happy. He has been under the weather with a cold and the extra week would fix everything.

British Goffer Shoots 64 Score

LONDON, April 14.—(AP)—Britain's top line golf professionals were outmanned Tuesday by a 70-year-old assistant professional, Reg Taylor.

In the first round of the 75-hole St. George's tournament, Taylor, 70, shot a 64, while the professionals averaged 71.

He finished a stroke ahead of Algy Beck, a Midlands golfer, and Pat Rafter, three-time winner of the tournament.

The 6800-yard "High" course, the leaders at 70 were: Reggie Whitcombe, Bill Branch and Al Green.

The "West" and "High" courses are being used for preliminary rounds after 36 holes, the lowest scores made in the final 36 holes on the "High" course.

Australia's Norman Von Nida, highest money winner in the 1967 British season, had a 71 on the "West" circuit. Fred Daly, open champion, shot a 73 on the "High."

Durocher High On "Duke" Snider

BALTIMORE, April 14.—(AP)—Manager Len Durocher is loving his Brooklyn rightfielder Edwin "Duke" Snider as a potential Ted Williams of the National League.

After leaving town with his Dodgers after an exhibition game with Baltimore Orioles, Durocher said Snider has the makings of one of baseball's top sluggers.

"He could become the Williams of the league," Durocher said. "I see no reason why he couldn't develop into another Ted. He has lots of power, and he's not only faster than Williams, but is a better outfielder."

Which is quite an order for the 25-year-old Snider who in 40 games last year hit only .241. However, this spring the left-hander has been a credit to the club as a good clip from the cleanup spot.

Williams Back At Training Grind

BOSTON, April 14.—(AP)—Ted Williams, who didn't do any slugging, the footling left-hander, hit .241. However, Tuesday and afterwards indicated he might be some one at the Red Sox outfield in the city series against the Braves.

Recovered from stomach pains which threatened an appendectomy, Ted participated in a practice game with Coach Paul Schrieber and then fielded a few line drives.

He worked up some substantial perspiration and reported he felt "pretty good, although my legs are a bit wobbly."

Have Cards and Phillies Signed Mutual Aid Pact?

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK, April 14.—(AP)—The Phillies and Cardinals seem to have organized a mutual aid society.

It is hoped the deal by which the St. Louis club obtained infielder Ralph LaPointe in exchange for first baseman Dick Sisler turns out as well for all concerned as the Harry Walker-Ron Northey swap of last year.

Both clubs think they got the best of the Northey-Walker transaction, which makes everything lovely. In explaining his own satisfaction, Manager Eddie Dyer of the Cards said:

HIT THOSE FENCES

"We were desperate at the time for somebody who could hit those fences, Terry Moore and Irv Dusak were out with injuries and Stan Musial was gone. We just had to have somebody."

"We think we did all right. Northey, not playing in as many games, hit 18 home runs and batted in 66 runs. . . Walker led the league in average with .353, but he hit only one home run and batted in only 41."

Both Dyer and Manager Ben Chapman of the Phils were intrigued about insurance for certain players and both had expressed the hope a deal might be made.

In acquiring LaPointe, Dyer can rest a little easier when he contemplates the possibility of Marty Marlin falling flat on his face while walking out to his shortstop position due to a common cold.

LaPointe, a left-handed thrower, is no Marlin, but he is a fairly capable young fellow who has picked up a lot of knowledge

Bob Locke Looks to South Africa; Bert Gee Recuperating at Home

By Bert Greer

Edmonton's enthusiasts of the fairways have all been given up in despair.

Weeks ago they staged the annual spring roundup of golf clubs and balls and even applied a little bon-ami to brighten up the heads in anticipation of an early start.

But they didn't reckon with the "secret weapon" of the weather, who has been in one of his ugliest moods in years.

The forecast is again cold, so there'll be no May flowers from this year's April showers, and it appears the golf faithful will have to be content to dream those early spring drives and idyllic pitch shots for some time to come.

Tommy Morrison, manager-secretary of the Mayor Golf and Country Club, had only one word for the weather—"awful!" Tommy thought he had gotten away to a first start. He had all the greens cleared of snow in the fall of early snow-mould, but when 17 inches of the white, fluffy stuff heaped a few days ago, he was back where he started.

Mr. Morrison has been an Edmontonian for a good many years, but has "never" seen anything like this. "There'll be an awful lot of water when it does start to go—and the mosquito crop is likely to be heavier than usual," he bemoaned Tuesday.

South Africa is becoming popular—so much so that the great Bobby Locke, No. 2 money winner in the U.S. winter circuit, is contemplating returning to his native land next year. "There's plenty of golf over there, too," Mr. Bobby doesn't want to move out on it, he said the other day. It's spring, Tru-Lal!

Ridgeway opens. The foregoing heading appeared last year, but only 24. However, this spring the left-hander has been a credit to the club as a good clip from the cleanup spot.

Strange things sometimes happen on a golf course. For instance, Sam Hahn, a member of the Columbia Country Club, lost his wrist watch last October while playing a round of golf. In January, he found it.

He had it with him when he played a round of golf in January. He found it. He had it with him when he played a round of golf in January. He found it.

'TOPS' FOR HOCKEY GAME TONIGHT $1.50

It costs money to stage the Allan Cup playoffs.

Dr. W. G. Hardy disclosed Tuesday, in explanation of the gradually increasing ticket prices as the finals near.

For instance "tops" in the arena for tonight's Flyers-Reos clash will be $1.50. If and when the Edmonton squad figures in a Cup final at the arena the best seats are set at $2.00.

From the receipts of last year's Allan and Memorial Cup playdowns the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association turned back in various ways the sum of $72,400 as follows: bonuses to participating clubs, $50,400; special bonuses to four finalists, $2,000; injured players' fund, $2,000; grants to minor hockey (juvenile, midget, etc.) $13,000.

CAHA has a reserve of $100,000. It is no longer allowed, by terms of its constitution, to add to this. Hence the opportunity to turn playoff profits back to the sport.

Short-Staffed Reos Coze With Optimism

Optimism is the keynote in the camp of Winnipeg Reos on the eve of the fourth game of their best-of-seven Western Allan Cup finals. The Manitoba-Thunder Bay champions tackle Flyers at the arena Wednesday night and despite the fact that the Edmonton squad has worked out a 2-1 edge in games on forecast, the Winnipeggers of Coach Art Barnett are still confident where the series is concerned.

"Just give us a few breaks from here on and we'll do alright," the Reos' leader enthused Tuesday afternoon.

His biggest worry centres on available manpower—or better still—the lack of it. Reos have battled thus far without the services of Clint Albright. They have received virtually no help from injured Don McKee. Paul Piat, once-upon-a-time with Chicago Black Hawks, was unavailable to accompany the team to Saskatoon where Reos were downed 7-3 in the third game.

To cap it all Bill Toshack, who played the cup on the Saskatoon offering, had to return to the Manitoba capital following the final whistle.

There's a chance that Piat will come in from Winnipeg by plane Wednesday in time for the fourth encounter. But the best opinion is that Reos will have to go along without any of the aforementioned quartet.

The Trappers declined to practice Tuesday, but Barnett has ordered a skating session at the arena early Wednesday morning. Reos are liable to be lost on the spacious Edmonton ice surface which runs to something like 2000 feet. Their defencemen, particularly, may find it hard to get used to the large rink, and a number settled for no more than skates, gloves and stick.

Gordon Watt, of course, was an absentee. The Flyer captain suffered a sprained ankle in the second game in Winnipeg and was on the sidelines in Saskatoon Monday night. He is undergoing daily treatments but will not see action in the fourth game.

LANE WENT WELL In the meantime Doug Lane is filling the spot. He went well at Saskatoon, being particularly outstanding on the attack.

There's no chance that Flyers and Reos will do battle before anything but a packed house. A crowd of 10,000 is expected. The game has been sold and standing room only is expected for the Wednesday morning, will be snapped up in a hurry.

Back again after six weeks abroad in which he gave exhibitions in London and made a trip to Paris, the champ even was undisturbed by a $500,000 alienation of all his rights to the title in Chicago.

"Pure nonsense," he grinned. "My lawyers will take care of that." But then somebody mentioned Jersey Joe Walcott. And the smile disappeared.

"I think I'll catch him this time," Joe grunted, tapping victory with his right hand. "I don't name the round yet, but I'll get him."

"I don't think it will be a hard fight, either," he growled. "The last time I was in shape but wasn't in top condition. I was dead in the dressing room before the fight. I won't be this time!"

DEEP WOUND IN PRIDE You could see that his split decision victory last Dec. 8 had opened a deep wound in the Louis pride. So much so that there is a possibility, despite his retirement that he might fight again this one, that he may fight again.

"I said before I'd retire after this one," Louis explained. "They told me in London that I don't mean anything."

Revenge is uppermost in the Brown Bomber's mind. Knocking out Walcott, and quickly, amounts almost to fanaticism. The mention of the only man who ever made him look bad had ruined his homecoming.

So there were fewer and more feeble smiles as he plotted his literary, which included signing for the fight Wednesday; doing the lightning training at a friend's place.

Mention of Jersey Joe Ruined Louis' Return

By Oscar Fraley

NEW YORK, April 14.—(BUP)—His famed dead pan split by a word, Joe Louis was in high spirits as he stood on the chilly afterdeck of the mighty Queen Elizabeth while she shouldered her way up the Hudson past the Statue of Liberty.

Back again after six weeks abroad in which he gave exhibitions in London and made a trip to Paris, the champ even was undisturbed by a $500,000 alienation of all his rights to the title in Chicago.

Pickard Silent On Campbell's Hockey Proposal

Move to Convert Senior Leagues To Pro To Be Aired at Meeting

REGINA, April 14.—(AP)—President of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association—Al Pickard—has no comment to make on a proposal by Clarence Campbell, head of the National Hockey League, that the senior Canadian Amateur leagues convert to a professional basis to protect their player lists.

While refusing to comment, Pickard, at present in Regina, says the whole matter will be thrashed out at a special meeting of the CHA on April 22.

The meeting precedes the annual convention which gets underway on the 23rd.

Pickard says Campbell and representatives of professional hockey clubs will be invited to air their views on the matter.

He is proposing that the senior leagues convert to a professional basis, Campbell says—and we use his own words—“Everyone knows the amateur leagues are really pro players in disguise. If they give up to pay players, there ought to be some stability” among themselves for players, the professional leagues could “enforce” the rules for them.

DICK IRVIN DESIGNS HEFTY HOCKEY STICK

REGINA, April 14.—(CP)—When Montreal Canadiens dropped out of this year's playoff picture, and Coach Dick Irvin returned to Regina and went into business, immediate rumors sprang up whether or not he would return to the hockey world next winter.

But Irvin wouldn't talk. The veteran coach of 19 National Hockey League seasons and three Stanley Cups would, at the drop of a hat, discuss the possibilities of his wholesale sporting goods business, and the new hockey stick—with a round reinforced blade—he had developed and which he figures answers just about every hockey stick problem in the game.

He would also say that he thought Montreal's Elmer Lach was the greatest player in the world and told how Lach won the scoring title this year, with one eye practically closed after a skinned knee.

But Dick Irvin's plan for next year he said only “I dunno.” Dave (Ranger Leader-Pilot) Dryburgh summed it up this way: “Dick Irvin is home with his players and isn't giving any clue as to his future with Montreal. Canadian players will be at his disposal for as long as his wholesale sporting goods business can be taken care of by him.”

There seemed to be sufficient evidence that Montreal was after Irvin to return, and General Manager Percy Spence said that Irvin could sign another contract when owner Senator Donald Raymond returned to Montreal.

But Dryburgh pointed out that coaching Canadiens wasn't exactly the point job in the world for a season like last winter.

“Montreal,” he said, “with its volatile French-Canadian crowd is a rugged spot for a coach with a losing team and there isn't any realistic prospect of Canadiens' return to top flight.”

He also acknowledged that Canadiens haven't any replacements excepting one, and that the new firm system he is setting up won't produce for several seasons. The Lach and the Richards can't go on forever.

Sons' Manager Changes Mind On Bruins' Ice

PORT ARTHUR, April 14.—(CP)—Manager Ed Bruchet said Tuesday night that if the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association so ordered, his Lehighridge Native Sons will play all remaining games of the Western Canada Junior hockey final at Port Arthur Ice.

Earlier Bruchet had been reported as protesting any arrangement to permit the playing of more games of the series played on Port Arthur Bruins' home ice than on Lehighridge ice.

First two games of the series, both won by Lehighridge, were played in the Alberta city, with the series then moving to the lakehead for remaining games. Third game of the best-of-seven final was played Monday night and won by Bruins in the fourth meeting scheduled for Wednesday and the fifth for Friday.

Bruchet told the Canadian Press that the present arrangements had never been confirmed or suggested to Lehighridge, however, we have a club that can win on Port Arthur ice.

He will play the fifth and sixth games here.

Had the first two games been split, third match would have been played in Regina before the series moved to the Lakehead.

NEW YORK, April 14.—(AP)—In apparent protest against the tournament committee for the Professional Golfers' Association, President Ed Dudley warned the playing pros that “statements to the press” were probably being made which have been harmful to the association and must cease.

But what is the publication of such critical remarks which he said should be cut out of the press which has been widely applauded?

Reports Tab Bob Solinger As New AHL Rookie Winner

While it hasn't been officially announced, news has reached Edmonton that Bob Solinger, with the Flyers last season, has won the American Hockey League's rookie-of-the-year award.

The 23-year-old blond winger has been a standout all season with Cleveland, who recently won the AHL title by sweeping a four-game series against Lehighridge's Buffalo Bulls.

On Tuesday to the effect that the starry Solinger had earned his contract for next season, “terms of his salary reported one of the highest in Cleveland hockey history.”

At least three National Hockey League teams were rumored ready to bid up to $50,000 for the sensational rookie left winger.

His report was received from a “brilliant” season.

Solinger capped a brilliant season by scoring 13 points as the Flyers swept through eight of their nine playoff games. He played through half the playoffs with a special headgear so protect a deep cut eye.

He is a young “Solinger” smiled as he signed a 1948-49 contract with Cleveland on Sunday, and said he had much to learn. I feel I can learn more under the guidance of coaching of Burt Cook (Baron) than I could while playing last year.

Solinger, born in tiny Star City, S.D., expects to return to Edmonton sometime in the next 10 days. He will be married early next month to Miss Jean MacDonald of this city.

'Pics Meldrum Likes Flyers

If Flyers persevere to the Allan Cup finals and meet up with Ottawa Senators (the Solons aren't doing so well, are they?) you can add the name of Jack Meldrum to the list of those who think Flyers will take it all... The ex-Cup junior spent the winter with Boston Olympics in the same league as Senators (Quebec senior) and played in eight games for the Ottawans... Meldrum sees the Senators as “a tough, experienced team with a good netminder in Legs Fraser” but has no hesitancy in picking Flyers in five or six games... He has taken in most of the playoff games at the arena since his return home a month ago and has a good idea of the potency of the Edmonton squad... Of course there's still the little matter of putting the run on Winnipeg's battling Ross... Meldrum is strong enough to back that Mike Shabaga will not be with Quakers next season... On the other hand it's doubtful if the little pivot would relish a move to another WHL team in that he's mixed up in a thriving grocery business in the Hub City.

Harry Ornel, the U.S. league referee who is slated to report to the Western International Baseball circuit where awaits a chance to win his stripes as an umpire, is expected home for a visit early next week.

George Harrison, former Lehighridge Maple Leaf who showed briefly with Flyers last fall, is back at his Winnipeg home... Red Sox Given Nod Over Yanks for Flag

By Jack Hand
EDMONTON, N.C., April 14.—(AP)—Joe McCarthy's Boston Red Sox to overplay the New York Yankees in a two-team race is the American League pennant pick by this writer.

Although Ted Williams' attack of what-ifs confuses doctors and the press, here's the way it looks a week before opening day.

1. Boston, 2. New York, 3. Detroit, 4. Cleveland, 5. Philadelphia, 6. St. Louis, 7. Washington, 8. St. Louis.

Pitching is McCarthy's big problem. He needs a new pitcher at Fenway Park—pitching and Ted Williams, that is. Joe Doherty, Mickey Harris and Jack Kramer have fished good form, but Ted Hughton and Dave Ferris are doubtful. Hughton's arm operation has retarded his comeback and Harris has been slow to hit his stride.

However, the Sox pack the toughest batting order in the league with hitters like Vern Stephens and Stan Spence to take some of the pressure off Williams. With that line-up, Ted may not be walked so often. All this, of course, based on the theory that Williams' spending co-operates.

MUST BE TOUGH
Any batting order that puts a dangerous man like Bobby Doerr in the No. 7 spot must be tough.

The Yankees, defending champions, have a higher defensive club, with Paul Rito and George Steinbrenner second base and Joe DiMaggio and Dave Ferris for a full season, in center.

Charley Keller remains the Yankees' big “if.” Keller, who has been hitting since he started to play, considerable doubt remains about his ability to go hard under pressure.

Detroit has the pitching. Even with Dizzy Trout and Virgil Trucks.

U.S. Aid to Chiang Forms No Solution

Organization of a "compromise" Chinese government under the supervision of the United Nations will alone save China from communist domination, Rev. Donald K. Paris, (former missionary said Tuesday night).

Top Warm Honors For Kamloops, Prince Albert Cold

Kamloops, the city "with a place under the sun," took honors in Tuesday's heat parade with a high of 86 degrees. Prince Albert, with a low of minus 13, was the coldest spot on the weather map.

AGGRAVATION SITUATION American Aid to Chiang is Aggravating the Situation, he Contended.

The Chinese in the north are really not Communists but farmers determined to reform. Action of the U.S. in driving the north party into close alignment with Soviet Russia, he contended, is aggravating the situation.

In this connection the speaker pointed out that if China goes Communist all of Asia will likely follow suit.

His chief complaint against Chiang Kai Shek's government was that it is inefficient.

NOW DISSENTED While it is true that the North China agrarian movement was started 20 years ago under the leadership of Moscow, it has gradually become disassociated with the communist party in Russia.

The farmers, making up the bulk of the membership, are not prepared to form a government and govern all of China.

In the Chiang government will only prolong the Chinese civil war and bring no lasting solution to the military dictatorship.

As a symbol of his humility the new bishop consecrated himself before the high altar as the ceremony of consecration proper started.

He remained in that position during the singing of the "Litanies of the Saints" by the choir under the leadership of Father Leo Green.

When he arose an open book of gospels was placed on the altar of the new bishop in St. Joseph's cathedral.

Later he was invested with the mitre and gloves, both also symbols of his office.

As he was closing Bishop O'Neill gave his first blessing to the people, passing among them in the crowded aisles of the cathedral.

Nelles, hailed as Canada's greatest fun-maker on skates, was performing at Lake Placid in the two days of television and took part in a show out from the famed resort.

The talented comedian will appear here when "Ice Cycles of 1948" is produced by "Ice Cycles" and "Ice Cycles" appear.

Although Nelles' father was a famous figure skater himself, Arthur had only one season. That was when he started to skate at the age of six years.

His greatest laugh provoker on ice is his impression of the beginner on skates.

Despite the fact that he takes many well-aimed and perfectly timed falls on the ice in his comedy routine, one of the most accomplished figure skaters on ice.

A young man of many talents, Nelles is a brilliant ornithologist and recognized brush and canvas artist.

Nelles is but one of the many internationally-famous blade artists.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Fashion-Wise Women
Revise Old Look Frocks

Fashion-wise but budget-poor women are looking to schemes to revise their weary pre-war frocks.

One of the simplest solutions to the problem is a colorful cummerbund.

You can let the skirt of your too-short-for-fashion dress down half a dozen inches at the waistline—and cover the effort with a wide, wide contrasting cummerbund.

You can buy them at the neckwear counter—or better still in the light of thrift—make your own.

If your dress is cheap, use a yard of cheap material or taffeta and whip one up in your leisure time.

MORE ACCESSORY NEWS: Lush print scarves are bursting out all over. Wear them with a coat, suit sweater, blouse, tailored casual dress—wear them with almost anything.

You'll need a scarf ring to keep the slippery scarf from slipping off your shoulders. You can buy plain silver or gold rings for the purpose. They can be made in elaborate designs with monograms, jewel motifs and whatnot for $2 and up.

A white broom is an essential to the well-groomed woman. You can buy plastic little brooms that are easily washed and are more effective than the classic straw efforts.

One for $6c at any notion counter.

Yes! We have lots of bananas! There won't be any other fruit in this favorite golden fruit—will continue selling for ground 16c or 19c for a white yield.

Be the freshest vegetable vine you know that you can buy five ears of golden corn for 25c in any of the local supermarkets.

Stagnation of summertime in your menu with this corn—try for supper tomorrow.

Incidentally, something worth a mention—You can find the best in the stores these days that comes from the prize-winning stock in the recent past.

Selling at regular prices, you can be sure it will be of excellent quality.

April is supposed to be a month of showers—but all you need is a shower, and you're home.

However when the rains begin to rain in preparation for the day's decorative umbrellas to be had for $3.50 and up.

You can buy plastic types—processed talcums in plastic, processed deodorants, striped—can even have them with feminine, frilly ruffles.

Thirst—quenches that's party, pretty in a combination of orange and grapefruit juice with a dash of maroon cherry juice to give it a pink glow.

Of course you should insist on cherry in it and float a slice of orange on the top.

Britain To Continue
Canada Purchases

LONDON, April 14.—(CP)—Food Minister Stinchcombe today announced that he believes Canadian food imports will be continued without interruption although the agreement covering financial arrangements ends Wednesday.

I believe and trust that the end of the financial agreement with the United Kingdom will not mean reduction of Canadian food imports," he told the Canadian Press at a press conference.

I believe three-year-old arrangements will be come to time to prevent any interruption of supplies—at least I trust so. But these arrangements must be made, it is true."

He said that Britain has sent a list of proposed North American purchases in the next three months to the Foreign Office, and that the British intend to maintain the present sterling area.

He had been asked by the Commons for an assurance that the government would not relinquish the position by which Britain has been a receiver and distributor of dollars acquired or received by countries within the sterling area.

Chinese Students Go Out On Strike

PEKING, April 14.—(AP)—Sixteen thousand students of 11 North China universities went on strike yesterday at National Peking University.

The faculty joined the student body in the strike, and the government has promised to investigate the government's alleged mistreatment of students.

Port of Montreal Open For Business

MONTREAL, April 14.—(CP)—The port of Montreal opened for business Tuesday but except for the arrival of the cargo-laden schooner Notre Dame de Neiges, no ships were in port.

There was a lot of activity in the port, but it was a little in the way of harbor activity.

Revive Friendships Through The Mails

To the postman the forgotten man is your life.

If nobody ever writes to you, it's because you aren't a good correspondent.

Why start a letter with "I am well. How are you?" I hope you are well. How are you? I hope you are well. How are you? I hope you are well.

This poor old body is holding up even though old age is coming on. I have been thinking of you for some time now.

You can make things like the weather and school and your family. The weather is made up of little things which need imagination to make them big.

The summer vacation is almost over and your friends will be coming in from school and other towns so the time is now to revise good letters.

Never repeat story after story in a letter or give a list of names. It is a way that would embarrass you if the letter were read aloud.

Write the letter in a way that shows the correct way of writing for the many occasions in your life. (Leader Service, booklet No. 27, Business and Social).

Why Grow Old?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

A 50-year-old reader sent me an inspiring letter not long ago. She said, "I have always watched my diet and taken regular daily exercises. Since I am only five feet two inches tall every exercise of mine weighs about 100 lbs."

I have a lovely figure. Just as good as it was when I was a girl. If women would just realize how much exercise does for them!

"I recently had my appendix out, and my doctor was amazed at my fine condition and how rapidly I recovered. He said, 'I am so different from most women my age that I stand out just a few feet from the crowd.'"

The world of church and welfare work, travel and play and love is a good life. I am not bored and tired and fat and am content in it at home with my grandchildren.

This reader may have been blessed with fine health but even if she had been born with a mediocre constitution she would have been able to do the daily routine.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Domestic Troubles Due To Irrational Approach

Common sense is not only the rarest thing in the world, but it is the one thing that people most object to using.

If you will preach to them some strange, occult, mysterious philosophy, they will embrace it gladly. But if you tell them to show a little sense in dealing with a situation, they seem to use it.

Take most of the troubles in the world. Take the unhappy home in which there are quarrels between husband and wife and quarrels between father and son and quarrels between brother and sister. Isn't the only solution of all common sense?

It takes two to make a quarrel, and there never was a family row that couldn't have been stopped in the beginning by either one keeping his or her temper and giving the soft answer that turneth away wrath.

Rev. Harry S. Dodson performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white crepe gown with a square neckline, full-length sleeves, fitted bodice and a full skirt edged in sheer lace. Her (finger) tip was caught to her head with a seed pearl headband and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Margaret Youmans was maid of honor. She wore a turquoise blue tulle gown styled with a fitted bodice and cap sleeves. She carried a nosegay of sweetbriar roses and forget-me-nots. Shell pink flowers formed her handkerchiefs.

Hugh McGill was best man and Mrs. Youmans was usher.

Rev. Dodson sang "Glad to be the Night during the signing of the register. A bridegroom was organist for the ceremony.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. E. W. Youmans.

The couple left later for a honeymoon trip through the United States, the bride travelling in a black and white check suit, wide-brimmed black straw hat, black accessories and a cascade of asters.

They will make their home in Edmonton.
